

Visual ART TEACHERS CONFERENCE 2019

for all schools (primary and secondary) and other educational settings in Devon and Torbay

Friday 28th June 2019
9.30am to 3.30pm

Spanish Barn, Torre Abbey, The King's Drive, Torquay TQ2 5LE

Art Teachers and co-ordinators are invited to this year's conference;
Drawing: Back to Basics

The Art Teachers Conference network will enable participants to:

- share best practice and exemplar work
- participate and explore their own creative practice
- be equipped with new skills and approaches
- find out more about innovative ways of teaching and learning in the arts
- extend their network and find out more about new opportunities

This programme will include...

Sharing Practice:

- * Opportunities to share examples of drawing work by children and young people
- * Chance to discuss methods and approaches of embedding drawing across all visual arts practice in both primary and secondary settings

Practical workshops:

- * 3 practical workshops on offer, by 3 very different artists, all with a focus on drawing and mark making.
- * You will have the choice of 2 workshops to participate in – learning new approaches, extending your own skills and knowledge or just having some creative time for your self

Networking:

There will be plenty of opportunity to talk, explore and make art with your peers. Focusing on getting back to basics, thinking about the place of drawing as a skill and tool that can be used across so many areas of learning

Daisi – showcasing the range of creative arts opportunities provided across Devon and Torbay to children and young people.

Free teacher resources from local art suppliers.

The day is being designed as an active event with activity taking place in and around the Abbey, depending on the weather this may include some outside activity. You may wish to wear clothing that is suitable for doing messy activities in.

For further information about accessibility for this event please do not hesitate to contact Daisi.
